HARDING WILL BE CANDIDATE AGAIN. DAUGHERTY SAYS

Predicts That He Will be Selected as Republican Standard Bearer and That He Will be Re-Elected—Statement Made to Newspaper Men With the Harding Party

(By The Associated Press)
MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 17.—Prediction that President Harding will be a candidate for renomination, will be selected as the Republican standard bearer and will be re-elected, was made here today by Attorney General Daugherty, pre-convention campaign manager for Mr. Harding in 1920 and since then his chief political adviser.

"President Harding will be a candidate for re-nomination," said the attorney general. "There will be no other candidate against him except one and that one is always a candidate. He will be re-nominated and re-elected. The country and the party will demand it."

Mr. Daugherty who is at Miami Beach recuperating from his recent illness, made his statement to the newspaper correspondents with President Harding's Florida vacation party, for whom he sent.

The statement is regarded as by far the most authoritative informal announcement as to President Harding's intentions with respect to 1924 yet made because of the close relationship between the chief executive and Mr. Daugherty with respect to political matters.

RAILROADS MUST PAY $75,000,000 IS COURT RULING

Court at New Orleans Upholds Federal Act of 1920

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, La., March 17.—Railroads of the United States must pay into the federal railroad corporation fund approximately $75,000,000 as half of their earnings in excess of six per cent under a decision by a three-judge federal court in New Orleans today.

The decision upholds the constitutionality of the federal transportation act of 1920. The suit was a test case and the result has been awaited with interest by all railroads. It applies directly to every railroad whose earnings amount to more than six per cent for the past ten months of 1920 and the full year of 1921.

The decision was on a petition for an interlocutory injunction filed by the Dayton-Goose Creek railroad company of Texas. This is a short line only 26 miles long, but traverses the rich Goose Creek oil fields.

The contingent fund is provided for in the railroad transportation act to lend money to railroads suffering from financial depression or to railroads to buy equipment which were not financially able to make such purchases. This act was passed at the time the railroads passed from governmental ownership back to private ownership.

PROPOSITIONS OF TURKEY INDICATE WISH FOR PEACE

Counter Proposals of Turks are Received at Paris

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, March 17.—The Turkish counter-propositions to the Lausanne peace treaty draft are replete with evidences of Turkey's pacificism, "all indications pointing to a desire for peace and independence," declares Hussein Raghib Bey, the Ankara representative here.

Raghib Bey, who sat up thruout last night digesting the text of this lengthy document, which reached Paris by courier, forecast possible differences in the interpretation of the text according to which nation was doing the translating. His digest divides the Ankara project into two parts, the first being given over to those parts of the Lausanne treaty which are acceptable to the Turks and the second to the sections which their propositions have modified.

In the first part is included Turkey's acceptance of a delay in the solution of the dispute over the Mosul oil fields between Turkey and Great Britain for one year and its reference to the league of nations for settlement if no agreement was then reached; the granting of Karagatch, the Adrianople suburb, to the Greeks; the draft treaty solution for the freedom of the straits and the treaty's adjustment of the minorities problem.

In the second part of the digest, the modifications noted include the request that the frontier line between Greece and Turkey run thru the middle river Maritza instead of along the left bank and for the possession by Turkey of the Island of Castellorizza, part of the Dodecanese group, thus leaving Italy eleven of the islands. Turkey claims that Castellorizza practically belongs to the Anatolian coast.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 17.—A charge that George Weeks, former prohibition directing agent at Hammond, and Nathan Potts, a sergeant of police at Gary, tried to extort $200 cash and $50 a week from him for "protection" in whiskey running was made by Horace Lyle, negro, at the Gary liquor trial in United States district court here today.

Sixty-five persons living in Lake county, Indiana, are under arrest, charged with violating the liquor law.

Potts is among those on trial. Lyle, employed by the state's attorney general as a prohibition agent, was severely cross-examined by the defense.

PLANNING TO GET QUICK ACTION ON LIQUOR VIOLATORS

Police or State Officers to Accompany Prohi Officials

(By The Associated Press)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 17.—Police or state officials will accompany federal prohibition enforcement officers in future raids so that possible prosecutors may first be tried in state courts as a result of the decision yesterday of Federal Judge Walter Evans, holding that a search warrant will be necessary for the search of an automobile for liquor, P. Green Miller, chief agent for Kentucky and Tennessee, announced tonight.

This procedure is made possible by the fact that violation of the prohibition law is an offense against both the federal and state law under which both offender is liable to punishment for the same illegal act, Mr. Miller pointed out.

Attention was drawn by Mr. Miller to the fact that while Judge Evans' decision applies only to the western district of Kentucky, M. J. Cochran, federal judge in the eastern district of the state has held that agents have the right to search automobiles where reasonable grounds to suspect that a machine is being used to transport liquor. Judge Cochran yesterday imposed a sentence of two years in the penitentiary on a defendant convicted upon evidence obtained when his automobile was searched without a warrant.

Declaring it is impossible to obtain search warrants to apply to suspected automobilists, W. Sherman Hall, United States district attorney, said "before a warrant can be sworn out the name and location of the offender must be ascertained. No right exists to detain a motorist while this is being done and he can be in the next county by the time a warrant is prepared."

MUELLER MEASURE MAY COME UP FOR PASSAGE TUESDAY

Appropriates Over Million Dollars for Office of Attorney General—Only Requires a Majority Vote—Speaker Shanahan to Appear Committee of Seven on Herrin Riots

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 17.—When the house of representatives reconvenes Tuesday, it probably will take up for consideration the Mueller bill appropriating $1,037,240 to the attorney general's office for expenses of the next two years, unless the bill's protagonists believe they have not sufficient strength that day for passage. The measure is due for third reading Tuesday and final vote and as it is not an emergency it will require only a majority of the votes and supporters of the appropriation are confident that with all members present they can obtain house approval.

Roll call this week on an amendment of Representative Roe, Vandalia, to strike out the $70,000 item for dissolution of defunct corporations indicated that proponents of the Mueller bill are in the majority. The vote was 81 to 49 to reject the amendment. There are 153 house members.

Speaker Shanahan next week will appoint a committee of seven representatives which will investigate the Herrin mine rioting of last June.

The personnel probably will include Frank McCarthy, Republican of Elgin, whose resolution for the investigation was adopted as a substitute for that of Michael N. Igoe, Democrat, Chicago; Mr. Igoe and John P. Devine, Dixon, minority leader. It is likely that the committee will call before it all Williamson county officials and some state officers as well as newspapermen and others who were present at the rioting.

Representative Breen, Democrat, Chicago, will introduce during the week a bill to compel lawyers to work eight hours a day at a maximum rate of 80 cents an hour, he announced a few days ago. The bill was referred to in debate on the Mueller bill in connection with charges of excessive attorney's fees. Mr. Breen said his purpose would be merely "to toast the lawyers" adding that he did not expect his bill to get very far.

Judge Hurley of Chicago superior court has drawn two bills which may be submitted the coming week. Directed against "puppy love" flases and illegal alliances, they would amend the marriage and divorce laws. Judge Hurley would make it a law that no license to wed shall be granted until ten days after the application is made. The divorce law would be amended to provide that final judgment granting divorce could not be entered until a year after the entering of an interlocutory order in the divorce suit.

After the entry of final decree either party might marry again at any time, except that a party found guilty of infidelity would not be allowed to remarry until two years after entry of the original order.

Three important committee meetings are set for Wednesday afternoon. One is that of the senate committee on agriculture, which will hear arguments on the co-operative marketing bill. Another is that of the senate industrial affairs committee, which will discuss the Junli bill for an eight hour day for women. The house committee on license and miscellany will hold a hearing on boxing bills furnished by Representatives Epstein and Gallas.

Chairman Sidney Lyon, in announcing the boxing bill's hearing this week, expressed preference for the Epstein bill. He said the two were similar but that Mr. Epstein's provided that it be effective in Chicago unless the city council objected and wanted to impose certain conditions on boxing meets. The Gallas measure, Mr. Lyons said would have to first be approved by the Chicago council before it could be effective in the metropolitan area.

Both the Epstein and Gallas bills create a state athletic commission to supervise boxing.

RUHR SITUATION TWO CALM STILL REMAINS ACUTE

French Taking Coal from Two Mines at Present

(By The Associated Press)
ESSEN, March 17.—The Ruhr as calm but the possibility of a sudden outbreak still exists. Although the newspapers declare the situation is more acute they do not indicate any new source of trouble.

Coal is now being taken from two mines by the French. One of the mines is near Essen and the other is at Bottrop. The French have arrested several men in Düsseldorf on the charge of sabotage. They are accused of tampering with the telegraph system, the penalty for which is hard labor for life.

The controversy over responsibility for the shooting of the two Frenchmen at Buer last week is still proceeding. The Germans have produced witnesses who say the assailants were French deserters but the French state that bullets were from revolvers such as are used by the German security police.

COBLENZ, March 17.—The state of siege which was proclaimed in Coblenz has been extended now to Ehrenbreitstein, where general traffic is prohibited between 10 o'clock at night and 6 o'clock in the morning. This action, according to the Germans, is due to the soundings of a French soldier by two Ehrenbreitstein boys.

The boys beat a woman they had just seen with the soldier and the latter was disarmed and wounded when he hurried to her assistance.

PRESENT ADMINISTRATION HAS REAL FOREIGN POLICY

When the history makers begin to interpret present day events, they will most surely assign a prominent place to the Harding administration in international affairs. It is safe to say that the present government has made an enduring name in the morning and carrying out of a real foreign policy that gets results.

The principle that America seeks only the good will of all nations and is striving for the enforcement of international justice and fair dealing, has been pushed wherever the administration saw an opportunity. This is the only general statement that can easily be made concerning the policy; but the results obtained will speak for themselves.

The one thing accomplished which will be of most benefit to this country itself is probably the recent settlement of the methods of refunding the British debt to the United States. By means of conference and the application of good business sense to an international problem, the representatives of the two countries have effected a settlement which will go far to stabilize business conditions here and abroad.

The debt amounts to $4,600,000,000, the $100,000,000 which England paid in cash at the time of settlement subtracted. The total debt and interest is to be paid off in 62 years. The method of settlement is not so important as the effect of the agreement on this and other nations. When every other country in Europe is struggling to avoid its obligations, the action of England toward the United States can have nothing but a wholesome effect.

The credit for the agreement is due to the skill of the business men and bankers of both countries; but more to the determination of Secretary Hughes to have a fair and definite understanding with the English on this question.

An event of which the American people took little notice, but which is bound to have far reaching results, was the recent conference of Central American powers at Washington, brought about thru the good offices of the Harding government. Fifteen treaties were signed among the little nations and between them as individuals and the United States. Education, limitation of armaments, uniform laws, and many other things were comprehended in the treaties and agreements. Much was done to bring about a permanent federal union among the Central American states, and to stabilize conditions there.

It is easy to see how this will benefit the United States, especially as the government is contemplating the building of another canal across the isthmus. Obstacles in the way of the projected Nicaraguan canal are being rapidly removed. With two under American management in the Central American territory, such agreements as were drawn up at the recent conference will be vitally important.

The American stand at the Lausanne conference is another point in favor of the present foreign policy. Altho there only as observers, the American representatives insisted on a square deal for all the nations concerned and made suggestions much higher in moral principles than the plans of the conferring powers.

The Harding administration may take credit for the four power Pacific pact, the naval limitations agreement, and a number of other international treaties, all of which have been engineered and brought to a practical focus by Secretary of State Hughes. This man who is undoubtedly this country's greatest diplomat, has done all this with no stir or gallery play. His work has been practical and not sensational. He has confined his efforts rather to the office and the council table, than to the banquet hall and the drawing room. The results accomplished have strengthened America's friendships among the smaller nations, aided in promoting general business stability, and demonstrated to the entire world that this country is not in the diplomatic ring with hands held out for selfish gain. Such a showing is of infinite value at a time when other nations are eyeing each other with mutual hatred and distrust and seeking to take unfair advantages anywhere the opportunity is presented.

YOUR JUDGMENT.

N. E. A.
An old man of great historic interest—Thomas W. Shaw, dies at 51 victim of bronchitis, in a hospital at London, Canada. The platonic friend described him as the last survivor of the famous Light Brigade which charged the Russian cannon at Balaklava in 1854 during the Crimean war.

As a child, you probably recited Tennyson's poem which immortalized the Light Brigade. If it hadn't been for that poem, few of us would know whether the charge of the Light Brigade had to do with a battle or an electric light bulb. The poem was bigger than the Light Brigade.

Most important part of the charge by the "valiant 600" was that they willingly went to almost certain death knowing that their orders had been stupidly balked up. As Tennyson put it:

"Forward, the Light Brigade!"
Was there a man dismayed?
Not though the soldier knew
Some one had blundered:

"He is not the God of the dead, but of the living." Mark 12:27.

Read Mark 12:1-27.
"The higher a man is in the scale of being, the wider the sweep of his thoughts, and the truer his affections the more likely he is to believe that the soul is immortal."

MEDITATION: Thru all the centuries men's hearts have demanded immortality. Their minds have sought assurance of life after death. Jesus proclaimed that God is the God of the living. How wonderfully and how soon His words were confirmed.

HYMN:
Lord of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;

Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near.

PRAYER: Our Father God, Lord of all being, we realize how limited we are in comprehension, but we would know the meaning of life and the reality that lies back of the things we see. Strengthen, thou, O God, our understanding; help us to see thy power in the universe about us, and to know that in thee all things move and have their being. When we become lost in the mazes of our own thinking and confused in the ways of men, may thy spirit interpret truth to us, and lead us, thru Christ. Amen.

Theirs but to do and die:
Into the Valley of Death
Rode the six hundred."

Hoo-ray-y-y! Oh, that poem of Tennyson's was great propaganda for the war god. Many a young man has rushed gladly to embrace death in battle, deluded by the false philosophy of this poem. We're getting a little wiser now, and inclined to ask a few questions before carrying out orders, knowing hokum when we see it. Entirely too much fuss has been made about being dutiful and "obeying orders without question." That's a morose attitude, especially if the person carrying out the orders has the least glimmer of personal intelligence and judgment.

The individual has certain rights, as well as duties, and the propaganda that educates us to obey without question is an inheritance from imperialism. It's the same sort of stuff that was drummed into slaves by their masters.

The private has a right to question his military superior. The citizen has a right to question the edicts of his small group of representatives who constitute the government.

The employee has a right to question his employer. Most employers admit this—and gladly welcome suggestions.

We are free agents, not slaves, despite the propaganda to the contrary that has been accumulating in our literature and schools since imperialism began to fight for existence.

AUTO SHOW FOR YEAR PASSES INTO HISTORY

Exhibit of 1923 Called Best Given Under Auspices of Jacksonville Automotive Association

The fourth annual automobile show and merchants exposition came to a close at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night. While the weather during a part of the week has been very unfavorable, this show has gone down in history as the most successful of the series given by the Jacksonville Automotive association.

The number of cars on view was larger than before and more makes were shown. The spaces for the merchants' exhibits were somewhat smaller than heretofore, the change being made in order to accommodate a still larger number of exhibitors. This year as has always been the case, it was not possible to provide space for all the firms wishing to make exhibits.

The attendance thruout the week also kept up the record and the interest was maintained from day to day and night to night.

The interest seemed to increase with each day and the Saturday crowd was the largest of the week. While road conditions were not good they had improved enough Saturday to make possible a visit of a number of people from surrounding territory.

President Berger of the Automotive association stated last night that the dealers exhibiting cars had every reason to be satisfied both because of the number of sales and further because of the numerous prospects.

The satisfaction of the merchant exhibitors was also apparent and they found the exhibition very much worth while in a business way. It was announced by the Jacksonville Automotive association that the auto show and merchants exposition was a feature of the spring of 1924, the association having in mind to make it a still greater show than in past years.

In making this year's show a success the association had the most hearty co-operation of A. B. Smith, lessee of the Auto Inn and his associates, George H. Peck and Louis Kelly. The association was especially appreciative of this co-operation.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARTY AT MURRAYVILLE

Clarence Spencer gave a St. Patrick's Day party at his home in Murrayville Saturday evening the event being in honor of the members of the basketball team and their girl friends. Some time was spent playing rook and then came a dancing program, music for which was furnished by Wright's "Pep" orchestra, including Miss Mildred Wright and her brother, Benjamin Wright.

Refreshments of a very attractive kind were served during the evening and altogether it was one of the most pleasant social events of the season in Murrayville.

Those present were Misses Norlyn Sooy, Olive Ragan, Harriet Dobson, Juanita Smith, Velda Millard, Vivian Carlson, Louise Gollier and Eva Ramsey; Messrs. Fred King, Roy Carlson, Ralph Akers, Harlan Doyle, Harold Mawson, Billy Wood and Russell Miller.

BAKERS PRIZES AT AUTO SHOW ANNOUNCED

The associated bakeries of Jacksonville had one of the especially unique displays at the auto show and merchants exposition. During the days of the show visitors had the opportunity of registering and last night the prizes were announced as follows:

First—Mrs. J. W. Reif, Alexander.

Second—C. H. Martin, 447 South East street.

Third—Mrs. Leah Kitchen, 610 East College street.

These three persons are entitled to the handsome cakes which were offered as prizes. If the three persons who were awarded the prizes will call at the Journal Office they can secure information as to where the cakes have been placed for delivery.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

I desire to thank the general public for interest in the Paige and Jewett exhibit at the auto show, and also the customers who have placed their orders during the week. My exhibit was a prominent one and the many orders placed show the popularity of the Paige and Jewett line. Especially attractive were the Jewett touring car and sedan in Japanese blue, with all the necessary touring equipment.

Anyone wishing to purchase a Paige or Jewett automobile in order to secure any reasonable delivery must place their order in advance. There is a shortage of cars at the present time, and shipping facilities at Detroit are very uncertain, because of the freight car shortage.

L. F. O'Donnell.

Peggy Kendrick is a pretty society flapper. She lives with her literary sister Kate and the latter's good-looking husband, Bartley Claybourne. Kate, engrossed in her work, fails to note Peggy's elaborate clothes, but when she comes upon a lot of receipted bills she finds proof that her husband has paid for the finery.

Kate seeks divorce with the understanding that Bartley will marry Peggy when it is granted. But Peggy does not love him enough for that and willingly promises not to see him during Kate's absence in Reno. She does see much of Ralph Demarest, whose wealthy father is prejudiced against all flappers and Peggy in particular. So she impulsively marries Ralph and the end of the honeymoon discloses the fact that Ralph's money is to be administered by lawyers.

His father calls and succeeds in buying Peggy off. She flings the money at Ralph and orders him to make a man of himself. Peggy has laughed at Bartley's proposal, so now she reunites him with Kate and finally succeeds in reforming Ralph. In the end she justifies herself as a flapper and even wins the affection of Ralph's father who agrees that while Peggy's methods were unconventional her heart is pure gold.

YS OFFICERS HAVE NO RIGHT TO SEARCH

(By The Associated Press)
SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 17.—Judge John R. Hazel of Buffalo, federal court here today, denied prohibition agents have absolutely no right to enter a home without a warrant and asserted such methods must be discontinued at once.

Judge Hazel characterized the methods of prohibition agents attending to the Syracuse office as "an extraordinary procedure in flagrant violation of the constitutional rights of citizens and direct preparation of papers in a motion to punish William Brennan, in charge of enforcement in the Syracuse district, for contempt of court."

Judge Hazel's action followed hearing on three Utica cases, ordered the immediate return of Gus Pueli of Utica of sixty-four dollars of liquor seized in a raid on his home without a warrant by federal officers. He also considered the return of four trucks seized from Eli Cramer and John Flavo, both of Utica, previously ordered returned by formal order of the court and directed the attorney representing Cramer and Flavo to prepare papers in a motion to punish Brennan for contempt of court in not complying with the order.

In a third case, Judge Hazel ordered a truck returned immediately, provided the owners posted a $1,000 bond immediately.

GET NEW CLUE IN DEATH OF MODEL

NEW YORK, March 17.—Chiefs of the Homicide squad camped tonight in the West Fifty Seventh street apartment of Dorothy "King" Keenan, Broadway, who was found dead, whose body, drugged and distorted was discovered last Thursday. They had come into possession of new and important evidence. It was disclosed and they intended to make the most minute examination of everything remaining in the apartment. The detectives locked themselves in guarding their investigation with all secrecy.

This pursuit of a new tack in the chloroform murder was undertaken after a conference with Albert Guimares, one of the girl's most ardent friends. He had been arrested, technically charged with carrying concealed weapons and when held until this afternoon when an anonymous friend posted $10,000 for his release.

Guimares is under orders to appear in supreme court Monday with his attorneys to argue an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

PLAY AT FRANKLIN WAS HUGE SUCCESS

Young People of Sacred Heart Parish Stage "A Poor Married Man" Saturday Evening.

The play "A Poor Married Man" which was presented Saturday evening in Marquette hall by the young people of the Sacred Heart parish in Franklin, was one of the most successful home talent productions ever staged in Franklin.

The audience which assembled to witness the play was one which taxed the seating capacity of the hall. The cast of characters included persons of more than ordinary ability and the various parts were all well taken.

Musical numbers were given between the acts and added materially to the pleasure of the entertainment. Miss Grace Armstrong gave two piano numbers before the opening of the first act. Between the first and second acts Miss Blanch Harney, with Miss Dorothea Sargent as accompanist, sang two solos, "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" and "An Irish Lullaby." Between the second and third acts two piano duets were given by Mrs. A. R. Seymour and Miss Sargent.

Among those in attendance were a number from this city and from various other parts of the county, and as a result of the large attendance quite a goodly sum was realized. After the play several hours were spent in dancing, music for which was furnished by Miss Dorothea Sargent.

(By The Associated Press)

This report is in answer to charges by Wisconsin state officials that the taking of water from Lake Michigan thru the canal between the Chicago and Des Moines rivers has lowered the lake level and is endangering navigation on the lake.

A conference of attorneys general has been called to meet here Monday to investigate the drainage canal and the district officials have invited them to inspect the operation of the canal.

Villa Grove Defeats Rockford for State Title

Little Down State School Outplays Its Heavier Opponents

Superior Passing and Remarkable Basket Shooting by Barmore Turns the Trick—Winners Start With a Rush at Opening of Game—Rockford Gains Lead But Loses it

(By The Associated Press)

URBANA, Ill., March 17.—Villa Grove's little, but mighty basketball team won the Illinois State High School championship here tonight by defeating Rockford, 32 to 29 in the fastest high school game seen here in years. Villa Grove won by superior passing and the remarkable shooting of Barmore, who made 22 of his team's points.

Villa Grove started with a rush, a basket by Reynolds and another by Barmore coming before he game had fairly started. Rockford fought brilliantly; however, Gleichman and Behr finally boosting the score to 14 as the half ended, while Villa Grove had 15.

Villa Grove again spurred at the start of the second half with Barmore sinking three long shots which gave his team a 23 to 17 lead just before the third quarter ended. Here Gleichman broke loose with two short baskets after receiving perfect passes from Behr, and the score stood 23 to 21 as the quarter ended.

TO AFFILIATE WITH INTERNATIONAL BODY

NEW YORK, March 17.—The final step designed to bring America into closer affiliation with the rest of the tennis playing world was taken today when the United States Lawn Tennis Association decided to apply for membership in the International Lawn Tennis Association.

This decision was a result of the federation's action taken in Paris yesterday eliminating the last obstacle in the way of this country's membership by abandoning all awards of world's championships in perpetuity including the title events at Wimbledon.

The committee in effect refused to consider the resignation of Dwight F. Davis as president, tabling a request that he be relieved of his duties because of his recent appointment as assistant secretary of war.

It was understood that Mr. Davis would be prevailed upon to retain the post to which he was elected early in February upon the condition that other officers of the association share his responsibilities.

Invitations from Sweden and France for American teams to visit those countries this year were declined because of the desire of the United States Tennis Association to concentrate its efforts upon a European invasion in 1924, in which it is expected that leading men and women court stars will take part in the Olympic tournaments at Paris, in addition to other principal continental events.

WEBB JAY WINS OVER GARR WOOD

The two boats were side by side practically the entire distance, first one leading and then the other. Atlantic Jr. came down the stretch half a length in the lead but Sue J. won in a sensational burst of speed at the finish.

O'DOWD SAYS HE WILL RETIRE

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 17.—Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, former middleweight champion, who was knocked out by Jack Malone here last night, announced today that he probably will retire from the ring.

"I will think things over for a few days before announcing my future plans," O'Dowd said, "but the chances are that I am thru with the ring forever."

Local promoters are making efforts to match Malone who is also of St. Paul with Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, for an outdoor bout to be held here in May or June.

REGULARS LOSE TO CLEVELAND SECONDS

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Dokays Meet Elks for the City Title and K. C.'s and Yankees Battle for Third Place.

Tuesday at 8 P. M. the K. C.'s clash with the Yankees in the David Prince gymnasium to decide third place in the city independent tournament. This promises to be a hotly contested game and although the Yankees have an edge on the Knights it is expected that the Lodgemen will offer stubborn resistance.

The Knights of Columbus have many stars on their lineup and their only reason for their decisive defeat in the first game was due to lack of team work caused by lack of practice together. Since then they have been practicing hard and together as a team and doubtless will show very improved form Tuesday night. They will pick their lineup from the following: Devlin, Rolf, Burchett, Dowling, Rexroat, Rawlings, Carson, Doyle and Harmon.

The Yankees have a very strong aggregation and should give the K. C.'s a hard run for the honors. In their game the opening night of the series they put up a stiff battle against the fast stepping Dokays and proved to the public they have a team that knows the game. On their lineup is John McGhee, an all tournament star graduate of the Hudsonville, Illinois, High school, Roscoe Mawson, a graduate and former member of the team of the Jacksonville High, and Savage, a former high school player now attending the Illinois college. They will be well assisted by Capt. Pulasky, Curtis, Murgatroyd and Cooney.

At 9 P. M. the Elks and the Dokays take the floor to decide the championship of city independents, for this season.

The Elks displayed a very fine aggregation in their opening game against the K. C.'s and have been working hard this week in preparation of Tuesday night's game. They will use the following men: Cain, Zell, G. Voda, Kumble, M. Woods, Reynolds, Seymour, Lewis, Ator and Arter.

The Dokays will endeavor to retain the honor they copied last season and will go into the game to win. Capt. Wood, who has not been able to appear in the harness for the last five games, is rapidly improving and is expected to be able to play at least half of the championship game.

The Tigers will pick from the following: Wood (Capt.), Jones, Smith, Kennedy, Struck, Covey, Reynolds, Lawrence and Ricks. Brockman will officiate as referee at both games and will assure two fast clean games. Doors of the David Prince gymnasium will open at 7 P. M. and it is expected that an overflow house will be in attendance.

Early in the last quarter Rockford forged ahead for the first time when Behr tossed two baskets and a free throw. Gleichman grabbed another and the greater strength of the Rockford team seemed about to carry it to victory. But Barmore was not watched close enough and tossed two long baskets, boosting the Villa Grove score to 29, three more than Rockford.

A minute later Reetsch fouled Reynolds as the latter attempted a shot and Barmore tossed one of the free throws. Another basket by Barmore with a minute to play about clinched things. Gleichman tossed a basket in the last minute of play and Behr got a free throw on a foul Coombs made as the gun went off.

Canton won third place by defeating Greenville 12 to 10 in a ragged but fiercely fought game. Neither team showed any ability to hit the basket but played hard thruout. Matter tossed the winning basket in the last thirty seconds of play with the score tied.

Officials Fred Young, Bloomington, and Sam Barry, coach at Iowa, chose the following men for an all-star team after the games: Forwards—Barmore, Villa Grove; Gleichman, Rockford; Behr, Rockford.

Center—Reynolds, Villa Grove; Guards—Coombs, Villa Grove; Nelson, Rockford.

MIKE M'TIGUE WINS DECISION OVER SIKI

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, March 17.—Mike M'Tigue, the Irish-American fighter, won the world's light-heavyweight championship and European heavyweight champion, and Georges Carpentier can no longer retain the honors he lost to "Batling" Siki by a return match with the deposed Senegalese.

M'Tigue gained the decision from Siki at the Scala Theater in a twenty round contest tonight. M'Tigue won on points at the end of the contest but later Siki was reported to have disagreed vigorously and expressed his intention of challenging the decision.

Carpentier came from Paris with his manager and sat at the ringside. He watched the progress of the contest not only with intense interest but with satisfaction. He announced his intention at the close of the fight to challenge the winner.

As a ring battle, the fight proved disappointing. There was much swinging and sidestepping but no knockdowns were scored and neither man showed any particular sign of battle at the end.

One of the most exciting features of the whole affair was the possibility that the Irish rogues would interrupt the proceedings with a bomb, but the government had taken precautions, with soldiers stationed at various points around the theater, and beyond one explosion a short distance from the battle ground, there was no trouble and the fight proceeded on its long and tiresome way. It was evident from the start that M'Tigue had a pre-arranged plan aimed at letting the Senegalese tire himself out. He let Siki do the swinging, while he did the ducking and dancing about. When Siki forced M'Tigue to the ropes, which he did several times, the Irishman came back with hard punches and managed to work out to the center of the ring without having received material damage.

M'Tigue put little force into his efforts. M'Tigue slid or hopped around the ring for so many rounds that his supporters became anxious or discouraged and shouted, "hit him, Mike; put him out."

Siki, whose wrath it was expected would be aroused under these tactics held his temper admirably and showed signs of surprise when M'Tigue succeeded in avoiding his fiercest blows. It was not until the eleventh round that first blood was drawn, the Irishman's forehead showing a slight gash. Soon after that Siki was bleeding from the lips.

After the fourteenth round M'Tigue began to fight. He forced the pace and Siki made a rather steady acquaintance with the ropes. In the eighteenth Siki showed a rising temper and was stamping viciously on the floor while M'Tigue kept worrying him with vicious right prods. When he came up for the nineteenth Siki showed signs of punishment; he had lost some of his dash and was not as enterprising as he had been in the early rounds.

M'Tigue was wary and took no chances. He had distinctively the better of this round. In the twentieth and last round M'Tigue went in hard and punished Siki severely in the face. He was still on the defensive when the bell rang.

SOX PITCHING RECRUIT RECOMMENDS BROTHER

Chicago—Unquestionably one of the pitching finds of last season in the majors was Ted Blankenship of the Chicago White Sox. While Blankenship didn't draw many headlines in the sport sheet and didn't back in the limelight of a no-hit game as did Robertson, still Kid Gleason regards him as the most promising recruit on the Sox staff.

Blankenship hails from Bonham, Texas. That town gave "Red" Russell to the White Sox. It is said that the same fellow who recommended Russell tipped the Sox off to Blankenship.

No pitcher ever made a more sensational debut than the youngster. Sent into a game in which Detroit had a four or five lead, as a result of knocking out one of the vets, Blankenship stopped 'em dead. Chicago tied up the game but the recruit twirler was defeated in extra innings.

BURKERY SIGNS WITH THE INDEES

Well Known Local Player Signs Contract for 1923—Springfield Players Ask for Tryout.

Manager Smith announced yesterday that "Quack" Burkery, well known local infielder, had signed a contract to play with the Indies the coming season. He is one of the best of the local semipro and will be used at short.

The signing of Burkery makes four vets of last season with the club and Smith expects that the others will be signed before long. James, an outfielder with Roberts Brothers last season, and First Baseman Farrell of the same team have asked for a try-out with the Indies. James hit 403 last year and was one of the best hitters to appear on the local lot as well as a good fielder. Farrell is a fast fielding first baseman but not so strong in the hitting line.

Smith will mail contracts to these players and also to Ira Fanning, last year with Murrayville. Fanning played several games with the Indies last season. He is a valuable man, being able to play the infield or outfield and do duty on the mound, and is a good hitter as well.

The first practice has been set for April 15. Smith says that every man will have to earn his place on the team this year and moreover will have to be on his toes all the time playing ball to hold it.

Wolverines Show Good Team; Win First In Six Places

Score 43½ Points, More Than Twice as Many as Illinois, Which Finishes in Second Place—Iowa Was Third and Chicago Fourth—Hubbard of Michigan is the Star

(By The Associated Press)

PATTEN GYMNASIUM, Evanston, Ill., March 17.—Michigan won the Western Intercollegiate track meet tonight with Illinois second and Iowa third.

Michigan took six firsts, and scored in eight events while Illinois with a finely balanced team also scored in eight events, but did not get as many firsts. Illinois missed what appeared to be a certain chance to score in the relay when Fitch stumbled and fell as Brooks of Iowa whose team finally won this event, crowded past him at the pole. One record was broken, Reinke of Michigan setting a mark of 1:58 for the half mile.

Hubbard, the Michigan colored dash and hurdle man was the individual star with seven points, a first in the fifty yard dash and a third in the sixty yard high hurdles.

The pole vault showed unusual class when four men cleared twelve feet. This event was the break of the meet in the duel between Michigan and Illinois. At twelve feet, two Michigan men, Brooker and Prosser, and two Illinois men, Brownell and Collins, cleared 12 feet and started to vault off the tie. Prosser went out at 12 feet 3 inches which the other three men made, and then Brooker, the heaviest man of the trio, went over the bar at 12 feet 6 inches, while his Illinois rivals barely failed to make the height and left him winner.

Minnesota and Indiana, too, entered, did not compete. Several Minnesota athletes were present but did not compete because examinations had held most of their teammates at home. The Indiana men failed to show up.

Most so-called hair tonics depend only on irritation of the scalp to start hair growth. Hirsutone is an entirely different idea in that it is a true tonic for the scalp and hair, a cleanser for the scalp, a preventative of dandruff, fertilizer of the hair roots and a perfect hair dresser. It does everything but shampoo the hair first, apply the hair tonic and in a short time you will be happily surprised at the results.

LONG TIME RESIDENT DIES FROM PNEUMONIA

Elmer Fitzsimmons Passed Away Saturday After Two Weeks Illness—Member of Well Known Family.

Death came at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Passavant hospital to Elmer Fitzsimmons, a member of one of the most prominent families of Jacksonville. Mr. Fitzsimmons who had been living at the Dunlap hotel for several years, was taken ill about two weeks ago and went to Passavant hospital. Very few of his friends knew that he was a hospital patient and it is understood that Mr. Fitzsimmons did not think of his case as being serious until within recent days when the case of influenza developed into pneumonia.

Mr. Fitzsimmons was the son of the late O. D. Fitzsimmons prominent in the earlier business life of Jacksonville. When Elmer Fitzsimmons was a boy the family home was on East Morgan street, but a few years later the Fitzsimmons home on Grove street, which still belongs to the family, was purchased.

After finishing the public schools Elmer Fitzsimmons became a student at Illinois college and was in the class of 1886, altho he did not graduate. After leaving college he was for a long period attached to the Jacksonville National bank. When the late Col. E. C. Kreider became postmaster of Jacksonville he appointed Mr. Fitzsimmons his assistant and he remained in that position for a number of years. Still later he was in Baltimore, Md., at the home of his sister, for the purpose of managing some of her business affairs.

After returning to Jacksonville he served as a teller in the Ayers National bank and resigned that position because of ill health. During part of the war time Mr. Fitzsimmons served under M. F. Dunlap as deputy food administrator for Morgan county.

The deceased was a member of the Elks lodge, of Jacksonville lodge No. 570 A. F. & A. M., and of Hospitalier Commandery No. 31, Knights Templar. He was a man of reserved but kindly spirit and a characteristic evenness of temper made his friendship valued by all who knew him. Mr. Fitzsimmons has been for years accounted an excellent business man and his judgment was often sought.

W. D. Wood, a long time friend of the Fitzsimmons family Friday sent telegrams to Mrs. Eugene Porter, sister of the deceased, and to Charles Fitzsimmons, his brother, informing them of Mr. Fitzsimmons' condition. Yesterday messages were received from Mrs. Porter who is spending the winter in Saratoga, Calif., and from Charles Fitzsimmons, who has been in

MRS. J. M. PATTERSON DIES AT CHICAGO HOME

The death of Mrs. J. March Patterson of Chicago, a former resident of this city, occurred in Chicago Thursday. The deceased before her marriage was Miss Hamilton, a daughter of Emanuel Hamilton, for a long period a Jacksonville business man. His place of business was on the north side of the public square and he is remembered by some of the older citizens of Jacksonville.

As a young woman the deceased became the wife of J. March Patterson, who was for many years associated with the late A. C. Wadsworth in the hardware business, the store being located in the Wadsworth building on the south side of the public square, now under lease to the Woolworth Co.

Mrs. Patterson is survived by her husband, three daughters and two sons. Miss Lydia Hamilton of 201 South Prairie street is a cousin of Mrs. Patterson and there are also other relatives resident here. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church and a woman of many admirable characteristics.

The Chicago Tribune gave the following paragraphs about Mrs. Patterson:

Mrs. J. March Patterson, wife of the well known retired real estate broker and mother of Paul H. Patterson, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' association and publisher of the Baltimore Sun, died at her home at 828 East 45th street, yesterday, of a heart ailment.

Mrs. Patterson was born in Jacksonville, Illinois, in 1851. Mrs. Patterson's grand father was proprietor of the Chenery house at Springfield, Ill., where Abraham Lincoln long made his home.

Mrs. Patterson, in addition to her husband and her son, Paul H., is survived by two other sons, Kellogg M. and Julian S. Patterson, and three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Young of Springfield, Ill., Mrs. G. H. Scripps of Rushville, Ill., and Miss Margaret Patterson of Los Angeles, Cal.

SOME REASONS FOR A NEW HOTEL

H. L. Stevens & Company, of Chicago issue monthly a little publication devoted to hotels and hotel buildings. In a recent issue some paragraphs are quoted from "The Latch String," emphasizing the needs for a new hotel which exists in many cities. Here are some of the suggested reasons:

The hotel is the foremost public utility of any town.

It is the organized host to the town's visitors.

A town without a good hotel is like a private home without a spare room for company.

As we travel over the country all of us remember those cities with good hotels, just as we remember those friends whose hospitality affords us comfort and pleasure.

At some time or other every town that wants to grow organizes a booster's committee which tries to interest outside capital to the point of making the town the site of new industrial enterprises.

Free land, exemption from taxes and even capital are offered these outsiders.

This trouble with this method of boosting is that it starts at the wrong place.

The first essential improvement, is self-improvement, and the proper place to begin improving is right at home—with the hotel.

The cost of modernizing a hotel is not a matter for consideration. The question is: What will be the cost if we don't?

With an up-to-date hotel, a town can think of inviting outside capital. Until then its efforts are wasted. One night and one meal in a backsliding hotel will drive away more prospective capital than the booster's committee can dig up in a month.

Then, too, every town should remember that it isn't so much what citizens say as what outsiders say that makes the best advertisement.

A traveling man in a Pullman smoker does a lot of talking, and if he is grouchy because of a bad night in a bad hotel he will leave nothing unsaid. The same man, pleased with a town because of a good hotel, is a walking advertisement for it.

But it is not alone in its influence on outsiders that a good hotel is important to a town.

Of even greater concern is a good hotel's influence on those in the town.

The hotel is the common meeting ground—the one place where all sects, creeds and groups can get together.

As people come better to understand the true function of the hotel in the community life, there will be more and better hotels, and the pleasure and comforts of life will be multiplied many times.

FINE OIL PAINTING EXHIBIT

The oil paintings for the third exhibit of the Art Association of Jacksonville for this year are already hung upon the walls of the Dr. David Strawn Art Home—thirty oil paintings, each one of them a gem, ranging in price from $250 to $6,000.

George Symons, one of our own Illinois artists, born in Chicago in 1863, an artist of national and international reputation, has sent "The Rock Bound Coast," price $5,000. To those who love the ocean billows nothing can be more fascinating than this realistic view of the ocean in its majesty and its might.

Horatio Walker, a native of Canada, born in 1858, but belonging to the American Federation of Art, has sent his "Thinker," price $6,000—and it is well worth the price.

The favorite painting seems to be "Moonlight on Bruges Canal" by Charles Warren Eaton, born in Albany, N. Y., in 1857, price $1,200.

Joseph H. Boston of Bridgeport, Conn., has contributed a painting called "The Upper Hudson," price $2,000.

But why multiply details? They are all artists of mature years, experience and universal success. Each one has studied in former years in the great studios of Europe and has received medals at home and abroad.

The beautiful homes and the elegant social halls in Jacksonville could be made even more attractive by having one of these paintings hung upon their walls. Come and enjoy them upon the walls of the Dr. David Strawn Art Home if you cannot have them in your own home.

The exhibition will open after the union meetings have closed next Saturday, March 24, at 2 p. m., and will be open every day for nine days from 2 o'clock until 9 p. m. except on Sundays, when the hours will be from 2 to 6 p. m.

Mary Turner Carriel, Pres., A. A. of Jacksonville.

Morgan County Poets*WILD GEESE

Hear the flocks of geese migrating,
Night long musically clear
And echo-like their calls vibrating
Thru the tranced atmosphere.

They come—year after year the tide
Of restless wings moves to and fro,
Respondent as the clouds that ride
The wind, and nourish streams below.

They come—regarding in their stages
Premonitions of their own,
But lost to us among the ages,
Lost somewhere, or long outgrown.

Wild Geese, I fly with you by night,
Yet day-dawn finds me where I started,
Waiting my recall to flight
O'er cosmic regions still uncharted.

Beset with living's hows and whys,
At times my spirit feels, as you,
The urge that drives you shuttle-wise,
Your guide that is, and savior too.

Ah, would that I might soon be drawn
From dreams to which my senses cleave;
My wings I dare not lean upon,
The anchored nest I fear to leave.

At noon-day I am helpless more
Than you in starless seas of night;
And over what Life has in store,
I crave proportion as to light.

Lost—with guides on every hand;
Alone—with friends at every turn;
Weak—with Hope at my command;
Blind—in light for which I yearn;

As well to be a bird or stone,
'Twixt good and evil have no choice,
In thrall to Providence alone,
That speaks as never living voice.

—JOHN KEARNS.

LOCAL MAN INVENTS
NEW TYPE OF FORK

Edward Johnson Patents Adjustable Digging Fork With Removable Parts.—Will Sell Rights to Manufacturers.

Edward Johnson, 836 North Main street, has been granted patent on a new type of digging fork, which may be used about the garden or barn. The fork is so constructed that broken parts may be replaced with new ones. The tines, head and handle of the instrument are removable and may be taken apart. In this way the fork need not be laid aside when any part of it is broken, but that part may be replaced.

The fork may be made with either the broad or round tines. Mr. Johnson has been working on the tool for some time, and received his patent rights on March 8th. He is now endeavoring to sell his invention and the patent to manufacturers or to some one who will push the project. He expects to sell the invention outright, or will consider the right proposition in royalties.

Mr. Johnson has had a number of offers from manufacturers, but as yet has not accepted any of them. He believes his invention is an improvement over the usual type of forks, as it can be made to last much longer than the ordinary tool of this sort.

FUNERAL OF WHITE HALL WOMAN TODAY

Mrs. Mary A. McCracken to Be Laid to Rest This Afternoon. Death Came as Result of Heart Failure Thursday Afternoon.

White Hall, March 17.—Funeral services have been completed to be held over the remains of Mrs. Mary A. McCracken, and will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the M. E. church. The discourse will be delivered by Rev. O. A. Carman of Jonesboro, a former pastor of the First Baptist church. The singing will be by the Duncans. Burial will be in the White Hall cemetery.

Mrs. McCracken was 81 years of age last January, and her useful and active life has been spent in this vicinity. She was born on Apple Creek Prairie, southwest of White Hall, January 14th, 1842, her maiden name being Davis. She and an only sister were left to the care of the mother when they were quite little. On attaining maturity our subject became the wife of William McCracken, and it was in the McCracken homestead on West Franklin street that the death of Mrs. McCracken occurred unexpectedly Thursday afternoon. Her husband died early in 1885 during an epidemic of pneumonia following a very cold winter. The sister died in California a few years ago. The deceased is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James Hopkins of Roodhouse.

Mrs. McCracken was an exceedingly active and efficient woman. She has been engaged in business on her own account since the death of her husband and for several years has been a commercial traveler, in which she was successful. During the last few years she has confined her activities to home affairs, her main energies being devoted to the interests of the rebuilding of the First Baptist church. Before this was undertaken she raised funds with which to cancel every obligation on the old church, and then engaged in selling brick at one dollar each in the new structure, in which she led by a large majority, and her efforts for one of her years was an example for others to emulate. She was soliciting for a Baptist bazaar Thursday morning, and soon after noon decided to take a nap before resuming her solicitation. Miss Mildred and Helen Ellington have a room at her home. At 1:45 p. m. Miss Helen talked to Mrs. McCracken as she lay on her couch, but there was nothing to arouse concern. Miss Helen then retired to her room to permit Mrs. McCracken to finish her nap that proved to be an eternal sleep. When Miss Mildred reached home at 4:45 p. m. she felt that something was wrong, calling to Mrs. Marcus North, a neighbor. Dr. W. T. Knox was summoned, and he pronounced her death due to heart failure, with which she had been afflicted and for which he had given her treatment. His report on the case relieved the necessity of an inquest.

There are three grand children and three great grand children. The entire community is greatly shocked over the sudden passing of this long and active life in useful affairs in the community, she being a woman of wide vision and experience.

Need Attention in March or Face May Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish to look well the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othline—double strength.

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othline—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement; some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely. —adv.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

President Barker is attending a meeting of the North Central Association which is held at Chicago Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this past week. The annual recognition day of the Freshman class was held Saturday morning. This always occurs on St. Patrick's Day and is quite an event. The girls were very attractive in green and white and were formally recognized at the chapel hour. They sang their class song for the first time, the words of which were written by Miss Lucille Sperry, a member of the class. Rev. M. L. Pontius addressed the students briefly in his usual happy and attractive manner. Miss Hildreth Ashwood of last year's Senior's class presented the banner, which was received by Dorothy Randle, president of the class. In the evening they will have a party and entertain their sister class, the Juniors.

Some especially clever work will be presented from the department of physical education and up-to-date styles will be shown by the Household Arts department and refreshments and lunches will be served by the Household Science departments. Last year the Spring Revue was a big success, and it will without doubt attract a very large attendance.

Monday morning the class in foods in the department of Home Economics visited the Powers and Begg Packing Plant. Mr. Begg took the class in charge and explained the processes in preparation of the various meats. The class are under special obligation to Mr. Begg for his courtesy, as it gave them a much better understanding of the source of the meat supply for the home, and the many safe guards which are used to keep the products clean.

Miss Knott received word this week that three of her water color paintings, "Pike's Peak Toward Evening," "From a September Garden," and "On the Highway to Summit of Pike's Peak" had been selected for the Third International Exhibition of water color paintings which will open at the Chicago Art Institute on March 20th and will continue on display until April 22nd. This exhibition occurs each year in Chicago and for it are assembled water color paintings from all European art centers as well as from American studios, and it is regarded as the most noteworthy showing of paintings in water color shown in America during the whole year.

The collection of lithographs and woodcuts by Birger Sandzger continues to attract visitors to the Social room at the Woman's College. ## ANNUAL CONCERT OF I. W. C. GLEE CLUB IS MONDAY

Excellent Program Will Be Rendered Under Direction of Mme. Elina Toft-Colard

The final rehearsals of the I. W. C. Glee Club are proving that the public may be looking forward to an evening of great pleasure. In a community such as this, where music of various kinds is always available, there is necessity of such an organization presenting an altogether novel and at the same time a wholly worth while program. This demand the Glee Club under the careful training of Madame Colard, herself, is too thorough a musician and too truly an artist to be satisfied with anything less than the best. Neither cheap appeal to popular taste nor careless execution has entered into the formal of the program. At the same time, there has not been a choice for only those who understand music. The entire selection has been made to please without cheapening and to stimulate all who are present with an increased appreciation for beautiful music artistically executed.

First of all the members of the club have been inspired to thus give expression to their work and it is reasonably sure that they will convey the same enjoyment to their audience.

To music lovers the program which follows needs no explanation. It is sufficient to say that it is representative of the high standard of work recognized as the only standard at I. W. C.

Incomparably--The Better Way

Tender, lasting protection and care, in beautiful surroundings, is the right of all who have passed behind eternity's veil. And it is to those within whose hearts there lives an appreciation of this sacred right, that is dedicated. One of the noblest desires of enlightened man is to give to his sacred dead enduring protection and lasting care. He found the way centuries ago, but circumstances and growth of superstition and the active ignorance of the dark ages held him to a custom as barbarous as it is heartless.

Today the chains are being broken, and through thousand year old barriers of false and stilted sentiment, humankind is searching for the facts. Gentle words, ceremonies, flowers and marble slabs above can no longer gloss nature's frank brutalities in the grave below.

And with this understanding discerning people turn again to the enobled methods of the ancient past, and these methods, united with gracious science of today, open wide the way—

ONCE MIGHTY FORESTS OF ILLINOIS RAPIDLY FALLING BEFORE AXE

Unless Something is Done They Will Soon
Pass Away—Once Covered Thirty Per Cent of the State's Area—Will Try to Establish a State Forestry Division

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 17.—The once mighty forests of Illinois, originally covering thirty per cent of the state's area are rapidly falling before the woodman's axe
and soon must pass away entirely unless the "tree slaughter" is checked, according to Prof. Stephen A. Forbes, chief of the state division of natural history survey.

Of the original forest of eleven or twelve million acres
forests, only about three and a quarter million acres remain and even in the face of this tremendous loss of "forest capital," forest culture is virtually unknown in Illinois, Prof. Forbes states.

In an attempt to save the remaining forests, a bill has been introduced in the general assembly establishing a state forestry division in the agricultural experiment station at the University of Illinois.

This bill directs that when lands are appropriated the experiment station shall make investigations in forestry and allied subjects for the promotion and development of the forestry interests of the state, with special reference to the maintenance and improvement of existing forests
and farm woodlots and to the establishment of forest culture on lands better adapted to forestry
than to any other use.

"Much of the original woodland has been unwisely cleared and its injury, its thin soil having been largely exhausted by agriculture or ruined by erosion,"
said Professor Forbes. "Most of the forest remaining is held without intelligent care or protection
or the kind of management necessary to its profitable use. The state owns no forests except as public parks, and barring a few
plantings, mainly of an experimental character, forest culture is now virtually unknown in Illinois."

The division of natural history
survey is now making a survey

STUDENT HEARS ONLY WITH HAND

John Crane Sophomore at Northwestern Acquired Vocabulary of Twenty-Three Words Since November.

EVANSTON.—Hearing only
with the palm of his hand, John Crane, a sophomore at Northwestern University, has acquired a vocabulary of twenty-three words
since November. Crane can receive sentences composed of any words in his limited vocabulary
and has progressed so rapidly
that he also is able to distinguish songs.

Development of an ability to hear with the hand came thru
a series of experiments by George Crane, a graduate student and a brother of John working under direction of Prof. Robert H.
Gault, professor of psychology.
The tests, Prof. Gault says, prove that Wileta Huggins, the famous deaf girl of Janesville, Wis., actually hears with her finger tips.

For his experiments, Prof.
Gault used a thirty-foot speaking tube, the ends of which are separated by two walls and a room.
About the receiving end a sound proof box has been made. This prevents the voice of the sender
from reaching the receiver, whose ears are stuffed with putty and his head bandaged as a further precaution. To increase the difficulty of the test an electric motor is kept running in the receiving room.

Starting with two words "Ray"
and "not" John Crane has learned to distinguish the twenty-three
by practicing only a half hour
each day. That the student might learn the feel of the words, his brother puts a sign from the window in the sending room when new words are introduced into the vocabulary. "Ray" is the best feeling word of all, John Crane says, admitting that "it feels like a lump of butter in my hand." "Did" feels like a short line with a bump in the middle.
"You" is like a wedge.

The vocabulary includes these words: Ray, go, did, not, bear,
fight, excuse, sorry, you, transport, see, forget, donkey, excite,
professor, Howard, will, control,
decide, desire, to, hunting, and therefore. The words that Crane is able to identify are "America,"
"Old Black Joe," "Dixie" and
"There's a Long, Long Trail." Prof.
Gault believes a method of instructing in the understanding of words by atmospheric vibration can be developed that will enable deaf children "to hear"
and which eventually may be of assistance in teaching deaf mutes
to talk.

REPORTING ABROAD JUST LIKE AT HOME

CHICAGO.—Reporting abroad
is no different from work at home, except in circumstance, although it is not so hard, Philip Kinsley of The Chicago Tribune
staff, Thursday night told students of the Medill School of Journalism. Mr. Kinsley has served in both fields.

The prospective journalists also were told that the newspaper
business is not romance, but just
the plain, workaday business world, perhaps warped a little in perspective.

"The man at home on the street, with a definite assignment
checked against him on the city
editor's desk, is the one to consider," Mr. Kinsley said. "In this field where the great need of training lies. There will not be fat contracts but there are other compensations."

"You will not be tied to a desk.
You can keep young and alive
and play a vital part in the world's affairs. I can hold a clear head in emergency, sift
down a mass of conflicting testimony into an interesting, readable, fair and reasonably accurate news story in time and space
demanded, you can qualify and need not be dismayed at the future of the world. The world is talented of life."

"One quality that I would put above all others approaching a story is that of ruthless impar-sonality. Put your personal opinions in your pocket and seek the facts. First and last you must deal with facts. No fake ever approached the truth. One who hopes to survive in the game must learn to write short stories."

"The old story of a column and a half in length is now packed away into 300 or 400 words. It is not simply cutting a story. It is a recognition of thought and presentation. The simple news story is the best. Be careful in money affairs, stand up for yourself as a reporter, and read, read,
read."

BABSON BULLISH ON THE SOUTH

Great Improvement Near

LAKE WALES, Florida, March
16.—During the past two weeks
Roger W. Babson has been traveling through the south continuing his study of business conditions. He is now in Florida and today releases a statement on conditions. "I am very bullish
on the South for a long pull,"
says Mr. Babson. "Alabama may become the greatest industrial
state in America, and Florida
may become the greatest agricultural state. The South has all the basic natural resources—
climate, phosphates, fuel, water power and shipping facilities. All the south needs is more 'vision'
and more of that indescribable
'something' which makes things
go. Moreover, the south is fast getting that vision. Every southern city and every southern state is evidence of this fact.
The south is waking up and the north and west must look out or
they will some day be out-classed both industrially and agriculturally."

"It was only a few years ago
that cotton mills were built in the south. Today some of the finest mills in the world are in Georgia, the Carolinas and Texas.
Moreover, the workers in these mills are a splendid group of sturdy Americans of whom we all may well be proud. But the industrial south is not dependent upon cotton mills. Iron and steel plants, great chemical plants, mills and factories of all kinds are now found in this section. New factories—stimulated partly by the increase in railroad
freight rates—are springing up
every day in Alabama, Texas,
Louisiana, Georgia, the Carolinas and Mississippi. Considering its strategic location for Latin American export trade and its nearness to the center of population in the United States, the south is bound to grow industrially."

"As I expected when discussing a certain section of the west, the wheat grower is up against the difficulty that as a nation becomes more prosperous it consumes less wheat per capita. The reverse, however, is true of cotton, sugar, fruits, nuts and most of the other products which are raised in the south. As people become more prosperous they use
more cotton, eat more sugar,
fruit, nuts and the like. Hence,
the south is sure to prosper agriculturally as it has sunshine, rain
and phosphate as well as seaports, railroads, fuel and every natural advantage."

"Figuring the cotton crop as a whole, it will bring the growers 50 per cent or 60 per cent more money than last year. This means not only a gain in purchasing power, but a marked change
in sentiment. The cotton states will be in a mood to buy. From present indications, the localities
to watch are Georgia and South Carolina. In these states weevil damage may be rather serious.
"There is no question," continued Mr. Babson, "that the weevil is a serious problem and that its ravages have steadily increased both in area affected and amount of damage. The alarm is not without some foundation and it may be a good thing to get people waked up. The potato bug has been controlled in Maine and the cotton weevil can be controlled in the south. As long as cotton is treated like a weed, as long as this crop is left largely in the hands of shiftless tenants, the weevil will win. What the south needs is greater efficiency. In other words, the agricultural experts and the better
class of growers are able to deal with the weevil, but they cannot handle the job alone. They cannot make up for the laziness and stupidity of the shiftless."

"There are several optimistic
factors in the outlook. (1) Excellent work in research and education is being accomplished by the United States Department of Agriculture, experts, supported by the farm journals and local papers. (2) There is a tendency toward co-operation, and one of the byproducts of this movement
should be to raise the general
level of the intelligence and energy among the growers. (3) The continued development of the southern textile industry will create an influential class who are directly interested in improved
methods of growing. (4) The further progress of diversified farming
and animal husbandry will tend to shift cotton growing into stronger hands."

Mr. Babson is also very enthusiastic as to the commercial future of the south. Norfolk, Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah, Brunswick, Jacksonville, Tampa, Pensacola, and others
have—in his opinion—an opportunity almost equaling that of New Orleans. If the men of these cities would only show the faith
and energy of the people of New Orleans.

"Those who have confidence in the future of New Orleans," continues the statistician, "as a field
for business expansion, will be interested in the statistics of commerce for the fiscal year, 1922.
According to figures compiled by the shipping board, New Orleans
ranks second only to New York,
both in tonnage entered and tonnage cleared. This record is particularly gratifying in view of the great effort which the city has made to improve its port facilities."

"During the war period general
business in New Orleans made tremendous strides. Of course,
some of this advance was cancelled by the 1920-1921 slump; but even at the worst stage of the recession, business was more than double that of pre-war days. The upward trend has now been resumed and I forecast that during 1923 local business will run 20
per cent or more over a year ago.
The immediate outlook, therefore,
is fairly good and for a long pull
I recommend this city to those who are considering southern locations."

"When considering southern
locations, do not overlook Mobile.
This city is on the upward trend,
both for the current cycle and the long pull. At a recent state election Alabama voted a majority of over 75,000 to lend the state's credit up to, but not exceeding $10,000,000 for improvements
for the port of Mobile. Galveston, Texas, is also making great strides. Foreign trade figures show this city to be near the top.
"A number of things seen in the south," concluded Mr. Babson,
"have attracted my attention.
Among them is the reforestation
which certain of the big lumber companies—such as the Great Southern Lumber Company, at Bogalusa, Louisiana—are undertaking. We have been taught to believe that lumbering is only a temporary benefit to a section;
but this need not be so. If these experiments in reforestation are successful, lumber and pulp will be permanent products of the south. In the north such reforestation has yet been found com-mercially, owing to slow growth;
but in the south with the heavy rains and warm weather reforestation may be commercially profitable. If so, the time may come when all of our newspapers may be printed upon paper made from southern pulp. A number of experiments in other lines are now
in process which if successful will add great wealth to the south.
The experiments with grapes in Florida, the possibility of striking oil in certain states where none has yet been found are merely illustrations of the latent wealth of these wonderful states.
Then there is the beautiful climate of winter which is not only a great agricultural asset, but an industrial and commercial asset
as well. Moreover, wages will always be less in the south than in the north owing to a lower cost of living and a lower cost of doing business. For the same wage most people had much rather live and work in the south. Only higher wages in the north can keep people there. The same air
and sunshine which causes the millionaires to seek southern climates is causing wage workers and others to do likewise. Moreover, it is doing no harm to have these millionaires come down here. It opens their eyes to the opportunities of the south and will make it much easier in years to come for the south to get that capital which it has always so much needed. So I say to all America: Watch the south grow!"

General business as reflected
by the index of the Babsonchart
is running at a new high of 5 per cent above normal.

ILLINOIS BONUS LAW HAS MANY TANGLES

Would Take Philadelphia Lawyer
To Figure It Out Officially Say.

SPRINGFIELD.—Not only the provisional "Philadelphia lawyer"
with his reputed ability for un-tangling intricate legal conun-
drams, is required by the executives of attempting to pay an Illinois soldier bonus, but the service recognition board also has
use for a corps of linguists, diplomats and domestic relations experts.

According to Palmer D. Edmunds, chief clerk, there is seemingly no limit to the number of languages in which questions are propounded or to the number of questions that have nothing to do with the bonus.

Fortunately, members of the staff were drawn from a variety of occupations and most of the linguistic problems can be settled
within the official family of the board, except for the less familiar southern European dialects, which demand outside help.

A great many claims for insurance and disability compensation are received. Having failed to obtain adjustment thru prior agencies, these veterans and their dependents are appealing to any organization which seems to have the welfare of former service people at heart. The service recognition board can do nothing directly in such cases, but it makes answer in every instance and explains where effective assistance
can be obtained.

Another class of communications relates to education papers
and taking out naturalization papers.
One man writes: "Having served in the American army, I would receive my citizenship papers. Please advise me what I have to do to receive my papers."

Another man evidently thinks that the checking of the bonus
applications has something to do with the detective work. He writes: "I am desirous of becoming connected with the United States Secret Service Bureau. May
I ask information of you as to how
I might obtain a commission in the United States Secret Service, and oblige."

The correspondence files are filled with communications detailing marital woes, and asking for advice.

GORE CLUB ORGANIZED AT MT. EMORY CHURCH

Saturday afternoon at the Mt.
Emory Baptist church a number of men, women and girls met for the purpose of organizing a
"Gore" club.

The object of the club is missionary and educational and to establish a truer Christianity in its membership.

The Gore club is sponsored by
Rev. Herman Gore, the evangelist, who organizes these clubs in every
city in which he holds revivals.
This is the thirteenth club he has organized in the state of Illinois.
This club will meet weekly on Monday nights.

The following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Hazel B. J.
Walton. Vice president—Daniel Tinsley.
Corresponding secretary—Elice
Biggs. Secretary—Alice Douglas.
Assistant secretary—Myrtle Parker. Treasurer—Mrs. Mammie Williams. Chaplain—Miss Anna Wilson.
Assistant chaplain—Mrs. Alpha Bynum. Organist—Miss Georgia Parker.
Assistant organist—Miss Elsie
Blue. Spokesman—C. W. Tinsley.
Program committee—Miss Bessie Vaughn, Mrs. Lucinda Allen,
Mrs. Callie Blue.

CARD OF THANKS.

REPORT ON LABOR IN HAWAII ANGRYS JAPAN NEWSPAPERS

Editorials Attack Report of Federal Commission Recently Made on Labor Conditions in the Islands—Say it is Only Another Instance of Reckless Propaganda

(By The Associated Press)

HONOLULU, T. H.—The report of the federal commission, which recently investigated labor conditions in the Hawaiian Islands in connection with the resolution pending in Congress to permit the importation of otherwise ineligible aliens to counteract an alleged labor shortage, was subjected to considerable criticism by the Japanese language newspapers here, according to translations on file
with the territorial attorney general.

The report said the commissioners had found no labor shortage in the pineapple or sugar industries, but that a shortage was apparent in the rice industry. The Japanese newspapers objected, particularly in their editorials, to the paragraph of the report which stated that attention
should be called "especially to the menace of alien domination, and that the present policy of parental adoption
and the importation of 'picture brides' by the Japanese
should be stopped because these practices have defeated
the purpose of the 'gentleman's agreement' to curtail common labor by augmenting the supply to such an extent that it will soon overwhelm the territory, numerically, politically and commercially. The menace from a military standpoint can be verified fully by referring to the records of related federal departments. If these islands are to remain American, an assured control of political, industrial, commercial, social and educational life must also be American."

The Nippon Jiji expressed regret that "the members of the labor commission have swallowed the wicked propaganda of the interests and have harped on the alleged Japanese menace in their report. We did not believe that the commission which investigated the actual conditions would make such a report. This is another instance of the result of reckless propaganda, of men who care only for the end and not for the means."

The Hawaii Record said that
the report will "please the capitalists, and it impresses one that Chinese coolies will be imported. Like the Nippon Jiji it believes that the commission
swallowed the materials fed to
it by the agents of the sugar planters."

The Hochi continues: "The fact that the labor probes have distorted the facts and presented the false argument of Japanese domination has completely shuttered the writer's strong faith
in the labor leaders who, he believed, would never misrepres-ent the truth. In all cases
there are honest and dishonest
men. But the writer did not believe this applied to the leaders of labor organizations, which style themselves the creators of the new age."

The Hawaii Shimpo attacked
the declaration of the report that the Japanese control over building trades as well as most of the small stores of Hawaii.

"It was pointed out that there are 177 Japanese stores as compared with 56 American, and 29 Japanese theaters as against 6 American," the Shimpo said. "How ridiculous to compare an American firm like American Factors, or T. H. Davies and Co., with a small Japanese store, or to compare the new Hawaii or Princess theatre
with the Asahi or Park Japanese theaters."

"The report, after all, is nothing but misrepresentation, as far as the Japanese problem is concerned."

"Laborers in Hawaii can rest assured that the labor organizations on the mainland will not sanction a measure which will be of great advantage or benefit to the capitalists. The so-called Japanese menace is most annoying to the Japanese laborers here
but since the report has no material effect on the laborers, they should not be restless and should keep up their movement for higher wages."

- Don't spend too much time looking

- Don't be sore if the boss speaks a little snappy once in a while—he is human and may have troubles too.
- Don't spend too much time convers-

HORSE DRAWN HEARSE

PROVE TO BE NOVELTY

Louisville, Ky.—(By the A. P.)

The unique sight of a horse-drawn hearse heading a funeral procession of mourner-laden automobiles appeared on the streets here recently.

Mrs. Lucy Rust, 72, died at Fairmount, Ky., and her body was brought here for burial. During the last years of her life, Mrs. Rust had steadfastly refused to ride in an automobile. She requested before her death that a horse-drawn hearse be used at her funeral.

After much effort, a hearse was found at Mount Washington, Ky., and brought here bearing the body of Mrs. Rust from Fairmount. Confronting the cortege were the machines of relatives and friends.

ONCE MIGHTY FORESTS OF ILLINOIS RAPIDLY FALLING BEFORE AXE

Most of the forests of the state are in counties in the extreme southern part. Eleven of these counties have been surveyed and have been found to contain 2,389,129 acres, of which 473,362 acres or a little more than 19 per cent are wooded. The largest continuous tract in the state is one of 175,000 acres of upland woods bordering the Mississippi bottoms in the counties of Alexander, Union and Jackson.

The principal uses of timber in this district, according to Prof. Forbes, are railroad ties, pilings, coal mine timbers, veneers for boxes, crates and baskets used in shipping fruit, and the making of charcoal for the manufacture of gunpowder.

These products are all worked out locally.

A "hand-to-mouth" policy is the principal cause of what Prof. Forbes called "the poverty stricken" condition of these woodlanders. The present annual cut from this section in Southern Illinois is 20,000,000 feet and annual growth amounts to about thirteen million feet.

"In other words," comments Prof. Forbes, "the natural increase is about two-thirds the average loss by cutting, and the forest capital is being rapidly eaten away."

CASS COUNTY COURT TO CONVENE MONDAY

Virginia, March 17.—The March term of the circuit court convenes in Virginia at 9 o'clock Monday morning when Judge Guy Williams of Havana takes the bench. Both grand jurors and petit jurors have been summoned by Sheriff James R. Sligh to appear on Monday.

The principal divorce case to be heard by Judge Williams will be that of Vivian Draser vs. William Draser, both of Beardstown. The suit for divorce was filed last week by Mrs. Draser's attorney, L. M. McClure of Beardstown. The plaintiff alleges that her husband has committed frequent acts of cruelty, specifying an attack made on her on December 1, when she was severely cut with a knife. The Drasers have one child, Jane, five years, whose custody the mother asks.

HOSPITAL PATIENT SUICIDES BY HANGING

Frank Wolf Hangs Self in Attic Above Amusement Hall at Jacksonville State Hospital—Coroner Rose Held Inquest.

Frank Wolf, a patient at the Jacksonville State hospital, was discovered at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon hanging to the beams in the attic of the amusement hall at the institution. The condition of the body showed that Wolf had been dead for some time. Coroner C. A. Rose was notified, and taking a jury of citizens, he went to the hospital, where he held an inquest at 4 o'clock.

It was brought out at the inquest that Wolf was a paroled patient, who had been admitted to the institution from Greene county in 1919. After being placed on parole, he was put in charge as janitor at the amusement hall. Several days ago, Wolf disappeared from the hospital. Officials of the institution started a thorough search, and places where it was thought he might have gone were notified. However, no trace of the fugitive was found, until yesterday another paroled patient who was cleaning the amusement hall, found Wolfe's body hanging to the cross beams in the attic above the hall.

The man had evidently secured a rope and climbed into the attic, bent on suicide. It was shown by testimony at the inquest that he was not of the suicidal type and had never shown any tendency in that direction. He had been mentally afflicted since he was ten years old, and had been confined to various state institutions. The records showed that he escaped from one hospital and was found after a search and brought back to the institution.

After discovering the body yesterday afternoon, the other patient notified the hospital authorities, and employees of the place cut the body down. Dr. G. T. McLin of the hospital staff was summoned and made the necessary examination.

The coroner's jury, consisting of C. O. Bayha, foreman; Benjamin Cade, William Batz, E. R. Carter, John R. Flynn and Thomas Quinn, returned a verdict based upon the testimony at the inquest, finding that Wolf died by his own hand, hanging himself by a rope to the beams in the attic of the amusement hall at Jacksonville State Hospital. The jury also exonerated the institution authorities from all blame in the matter. After his disappearance, Wolf was sought in the most likely places, as it was logically concluded that he had escaped. The spot he chose for the fatal act was well hidden, and it was only by accident that his body was discovered.

The body was removed to the Reynolds Mortuary and prepared for burial and will be sent to Greene county for funeral services and interment.

ILLINOIS ELECTRIC POWER CO. OFFERINGS ANNOUNCED

A group of bankers headed by Federal Securities Corporation, Ames Emerich & Co., and Hadenpyle, Hardy & Co., Inc., will offer this week $3,500,000 Illinois Electric Power Company 6 per cent twenty-year first mortgage sinking fund gold bonds due April 1, 1943. These bonds are guaranteed as to principal, interest and sinking fund payments by endorsement by Commonwealth Power Corporation. Illinois Electric Power Company will engage in the manufacture, transmission and sale of electricity and will build a super-electric generating station to be located on the Illinois river opposite Peoria.

The company will also construct transmission lines connecting its property with the distributing systems of Central Illinois Light Company at Peoria and Illinois Power Company at Springfield, forming a physical interconnection of the three properties with control at Peoria. The bonds will be secured by a first mortgage on the new station and transmission lines and further by the pledge of contracts with the two distributing companies which provide for revenue to Illinois Electric Power Company equal to at least twice the interest charges on the bonds to be issued. The bonds will be offered at a discount from par to yield an attractive return.

Murrayville, March 17.—Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Daniel and daughter, Mrs. W. W. Walker, attended a birthday dinner Saturday at the home of Mrs. H. H. Conover in Virginia. The affair was in honor of the eighty-third birthday of Mr. Daniels' aunt, Mrs. L. W. Carney of Bloomington. F. E. Carney of Denver, Colo., a son of the guest of honor, was also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Haynes of Mt. Pleasant came Saturday for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. Martha Haynes, and family.

TELLS NEED FOR LIVESTOCK PRODUCTION

Urbana, Ill. — Successful live stock production includes the careful selection of stock for the purpose in view both in regard to the kind and the number of animals, according to W. H. Smith of the University of Illinois.

"Live stock of the proper type and quality are likely to prove the most profitable. For example, it has been shown by experiment at the University of Illinois that the better grades of feeder cattle make more rapid and larger gains than the poorer grades, and that when fattened, they produce a relatively larger percentage of saleable meat. In case of breeding stock, careful selection should be made to insure the production of animals of the type demanded by the trade.

"Plans for live stock production should follow established procedures and doubtful or untried practices should be left to the investigators or men with plenty of means. It is possible in most communities to locate successful live stock farmers and their practices should be used as patterns for others. In most cases these practices are in line with recommendations based upon experimental evidence and years of successful experience.

"The number of animals should be governed by the amount of home grown feed produced. Experience in handling stock and the amount of available equipment. Sufficient live stock to consume the feeds grown upon the farm helps to improve a system of farming and is usually a safe number to advise. On this basis the operation is closely associated with the general farming plan while a greater number means more specialization and requires greater managerial ability. Expensive and elaborate equipment is not necessary. Buildings so arranged to insure convenience to the owner and comfort to the animals are all that is required. In many instances farmers are successful in their live stock operations with a small outlay for equipment by handling their stock under natural conditions in the open during most of the year."

Will H. Hayes, former postmaster general, has been appointed a lieutenant colonel in the Officers' Reserve Corps. The commission provides that if the United States should send an expeditionary force into the field in time of war, Mr. Hayes would direct and control all mails for this force. In other words he would be Postmaster General in the field, subject only to the jurisdiction of the adjutant general of the army.

MANY NOTED AMERICANS ONCE BOOK AGENTS

CHICAGO.—(By The Associated Press).—Many of the illustrious men in American history at one time in the early periods of their lives were house-to-house book salesmen. It was revealed here at a meeting of subscription book publishers.

George Washington took orders for books and delivered them himself on horseback, according to a paper read by R. S. Branch of Chicago. General George Washington Irving's "Life of Columbus," the paper added, while Daniel Webster derived Dartmouth college tuition fees from the sale of Weems' "Life of Washington," and De Toqueville's "Democracy in America."

"Napoleon Bonaparte, in his days as a struggling lieutenant, is said to have taken orders for 'Histoire de la Revolution,'" Mr. Branch said. "Still preserved in the Louvre in Paris is Napoleon's book canvassing outfit and with it is a list of 200 subscribers whose names were signed on the dotted line."

"When Washington was twenty years old he sold a book known as Blyden's 'American Savage.' It cost him $2 a copy and he sold it for $3. His diary shows that he sold more than 500 copies, riding long distances to deliver."

"Thomas Brackett Reed helped his way thru law school by book selling. George Peabody, Arthur E. Sheldon and Charles

HERE'S SOME GOOD NEWS

There is now a Quick Quaker Oats, ready for serving in 3 to 5 minutes. You never saw oat flakes which cook nearly so quickly.

That same delicious flavor which won the world to Quaker. None but the finest grains go into Quaker Oats. But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly.

Now your grocer has two styles of these extra-flavor oats. The quick style is called Quick Quaker.

P. Steinmetz sold book at various times, and Jay Gould obtained signatures for books before he learned to juggle fortunes in Wall Street.

"Apparently there were lessons in selling books even for these personages," said Mr. Branch. "Perhaps they learned what our salesmen do today—that the ideals of subscription book industry, honest salesmanship and high-class books makes for qualities that are the foundation stones of success in every line of work."

WHEAT VALUES ATTAIN HIGHER AVERAGE

CHICAGO, March 17. — A higher average for wheat values was attained here today. May leading the advance by touching $1.22 1/2, a new high on the present movement. The other deliveries also continued on the upgrade and registered the best figures since the middle of February. Continued European demand for wheat and covering by a prominent short in the late dealings was responsible for the sharp upturn. At the finish wheat showed a net gain of 1 to 1 1/2 with May $1.22 1/2 and July $1.16 1/2 to $1.16 1/2. Corn advanced 1 to 4/10; oats were a share to 1/2 higher and provisions were at a net decline of 10 to 20c. Liberal buying of May, July and September wheat for foreign account took place at the outset. Trade was not as large as of late however, but considerable buying credited to short covering for several traders here gave the market a strong undertone, the greater part of the day. Export business at the seaboard was only fair and largely to the continent, the United Kingdom failing to follow the advance. Corn and oats averaged higher with September corn at a new high for the season also May and July failed to get into new ground. Trade was largely of a local character with strength borrowed to some extent from wheat. Provisions were easier with hogs and on scattered commission house selling.

Governor Small Agrees For Proposed Bond Issue

Speaking at Decatur Governor Small made the following statement concerning the proposed $100,000,000 bond issue for hard roads:

The great road question confronting the people of Illinois today is: "Do we want paved roads, and if so, do we want them now—as soon as they can be built?"

Of the 4,800 mile system of hard roads approved by the people in November, 1918, 1,650 miles have been completed. We expect under favorable conditions to build 2,000 miles more during this year and next and in doing so, we will use the balance of the $60,000,000 and the automobile license fees received up to that time. This will leave about twelve hundred miles of the 4,800-mile system uncompleted. Believing that the people want more roads, and that we should complete the present system and extend it to approximately 8,000 miles, I recommended in my Biennial message to this session of the legislature, the adoption of a law which would permit the people of Illinois to vote on the question of a further bond issue for road building.

In the first bids received after my inauguration as Governor two years ago, the prices asked for pavement were around $40,000 a mile. Believing that those prices were exorbitant and that it would be unfair for the farmers to be compelled to exchange 100,000 bushels of corn for a mile of pavement, we rejected those bids and let it be known that this administration would not pay over $30,000 a mile for pavement.

Notwithstanding the fact that the people of Illinois are struggling to get out of the mud and are overwhelmingly in favor of pushing this great trunk line system of paved roads to a rapid completion, there has sprung up in this state an unwarranted and unfair opposition to the people's wishes.

The Chicago Tribune, two years ago, when we rejected the bids at $40,000 a mile said that Governor Small had promised the people of Illinois that he would build the hard roads, and that it was his duty to build them now regardless of cost. The same paper now says, "Why hurry. We may be able to get roads cheaper in a few years from now. Anyway, there will be nothing lost by waiting a few years until the present bond issue has been spent."

Challenges Newspapers.

Why do not the Chicago Tribune, the Prairie Farmer and the Orange Judd Farmer, and those other publications which are representing the opposition to this great improvement, tell the truth? I challenge them to tell the readers the truth.

They not only endeavor to make their readers believe that these road bonds would have to be paid by direct taxation, but they tell them that during the last three years the state of Illinois has assumed an enormous bonded obligation of $30 per capita for every man, woman and child in the state. When the truth is that the only bonds which have been authorized since I became Governor of Illinois are the $55,000,000 in bonds for the soldiers' compensation. The $20,000,000 waterway bonds were authorized in the year 1908, fifteen years ago, and for the last four years have been retired at the rate of $1,000,000 a year. Not a single waterway bond is outstanding or drawing interest.

The $60,000,000 road bonds, under which we are now building roads, was authorized by the legislature in 1917, six years ago, and approved by the people in 1918, and only $23,000,000 of that issue has been sold, because it is the policy of my administration to sell bonds only as the money is needed.

But even if their statements were true, which they are not, did you ever stop to think that the State of Illinois, through the income taxes paid to our federal government, is still paying from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 a year in war taxes? This is twice as much as the entire proposed $100,000,000 road bonds and the $60,000,000 road bonds combined.

I believe the people of Illinois are justified in spending for the advancement of their own business and their own pleasure half as much money for this wonderful improvement which will last for generations as they are paying each year to the federal government.

Increase in Auto Licenses.
Why don't they tell their readers that 12 years ago when the first state automobile license fees were collected they totaled but $105,000 and that in 1917 the year the $60,000,000 bond issue was authorized by the legislature, our license fees were less than $1,600,000; while in 1922, last year, we collected $7,860,000 in license fees. This is an increase in one year over 1921, of $1,200,000, an average increase of over $1,000,000 each year over the preceding year for the last five years, and an increase of over 7400 per cent in the last 12 years—this enormous increase with only 1650 miles of our paved roads completed.

It is reasonable to suppose that if we extend this hard road system to 8,000 miles that there will be an increase of at least 100 per cent over the present receipts in license fees, or that in a few years from now we will be collecting at least $16,000,000 annually.

It is safe to predict that the automobile license fees during the next twenty years will amount to more than $300,000,000 which is sufficient to pay off the $60,000,000 with interest, the proposed $100,000,000 issue and interest and still leave several million dollars a year for maintenance of the roads. Or, if our license fees did not increase a cent over those of last year, by issuing bonds over a period of 36 years, every single dollar of the $100,000,000 issue, the $60,000,000 issue and the interest thereon, could be paid in full, without paying more in any one year than was collected in 1922 in automobile license fees.

The Chicago Tribune and its followers say: "Why vote the bonds now? Nothing will be lost in waiting a few years."

Why, my friends, the constitution provides that no bonds can be issued by the State of Illinois without a vote of approval by the people at a general election, and we only hold general elections once in two years—in November, when we elect members of congress and members of the legislature—therefore, if money is to be provided to continue this work without interruption, now is the time. At this very session of the legislature, a law must be passed which will provide for the extended system and permit the people of this state to vote on the question of whether or not they want another bond issue to be paid by automobile license fees.

Want Roads Now.

Why do it now? Because most of us want these roads as soon as we can get them; we want them while we live; because this State of Illinois today has a Highway Department which it has taken many years to build up, probably the best Highway Department in existence in any state in the union, or any country in the world; because our roads are no longer an experiment.

It has been proved by extensive experiments, carried on by our Highway Department, that our present roads properly maintained will last for years and years to come, long after every person within the sound of my voice has journeyed on. We should build roads now because we are today constructing better paved roads than any other country in the world and are building them at a lower cost than any other state in the union. The people of Illinois are getting a dollar in value for every dollar of their money spent.

Issue bonds and build these roads now that we, as well as the coming generations may enjoy and profit by them.

Our constitution provides that the Governor shall make recommendations to the legislature but it is for the general assembly to pass the law which will enable you to decide by your vote a year from next November, whether or not you are in favor of issuing bonds and building roads.

Are the Chicago Tribune and its followers afraid to trust the people? I am not. I am in favor of giving you the privilege of voting your sentiments, and I am in favor of pushing the great system of Illinois highways to a rapid completion.
